July 7, 2007 — 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

PASTOR'S CORNER

This week our country celebrated our democratic institutions and our civil freedom. One of our privileges as U.S.A. citizens is the right to vote in our local, state, and national elections. Take steps to be well informed about all the positions of those seeking public offices and prepare yourself well to vote

— Fr. Marcellus

STEWARDSHIP

“You shall take some of the first fruits of the various products of the soil which you harvest, and putting them in a basket go to the priest who will set it before the altar of the Lord your God.”
 —Deuteronomy 26:1-4

ST. JUDE BIRTHDAY CORNER

Liz McNally: Today, July 7.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

"All of us who take part in the Eucharist are called to discover, through this sacrament, the profound meaning of our actions in the world in favor of development and peace; and to receive from it the strength to commit ourselves ever more generously, following the example of Christ, who in this sacrament lays down his life for his friends (cf. Jn 15:13). Our personal commitment, like Christ's and in union with his, will-not be in vain but certainly fruitful." —Pope John Paul II, in his Encyclical Concern for Social Justice, #48

FUNDAMENTALISM

Fundamentalists invest considerable energy, time, and resources to attempt to discredit the Roman Catholic Church and to misrepresent Roman Catholic doctrine. Fundamentalists Roman Catholicism as a false religion that does not even deserve to be called 'Christian.' Fundamentalists refer to the Holy Father as 'The False Prophet,' 'The Anti-Christ,' 'The Servant of the Devil,' 'Mr. Pope,' and worse. Some Catholics sometimes listen to 'Christian radio talks,' or watch TV evangelizers, or read 'Christian' pamphlets not realizing that the speakers, or writers, are fundamentalists undermining Roman Catholic doctrines and traditions. Catholics must exercise careful judgment and be discerning when listening to the over-repetitious misrepresentation of Catholicism preached, and written, by Fundamentalists.

OUR LITURGY

"Sunday [worship] affirms both the primacy of God and the dignity of the person. While the worship of God is not limited to any place, Christians build churches to shelter the liturgical assembly that praises God and celebrate the sacraments through which the Church is sanctified." —Built of Living Stones, #20

ANGEL STORIES

Police Officer's Partner

Location: Bakersfield CA USA
by: Alfredo Lopez

I had been a police officer for 18 months when I was viciously attacked by a parolee on an enforcement stop. My face was cut up and I was bleeding profusely from my right eye. I lost a lot of blood and could not see with my attacker and I still fighting. The fight lasted 11 minutes in 106° heat. I felt like I was losing and was desperate when I heard a voice whisper in my ear, "Ask God for help." I had completely forgotten to pray. I asked God to let me finish this fight and go home. Suddenly a lady drove by, got out of her car and screamed into my car radio that an officer was down and needed help. Suddenly I heard the sirens of other officers responding. I was able to outlast the bad guy with strength I suddenly found until help arrived. I suffered a concussion along with 8 stitches to close my eye, but I was able to go home to my pregnant wife. To this day, I can still hear the voice telling me to ask God for help. I know that was the voice of my guardian angel. This strengthened my faith in God and my angel.

I Think It Was My Guardian Angel!

Location: Ontario, Canada
by: Peggy Atatise

Years ago when my relationship was somewhat rocky, my husband (then my boyfriend) left suddenly to go out of town drinking. I was unable to follow him because there wasn't another bus that day.

The next day, I hopped the bus and went to the town he headed to, praying to God all the way that I'd find him. When I got off the bus and onto the main city bus, I walked a few steps and was welcomed by a man I've never seen before. He waved at me as if he knew me and I waved back.

Right then, my husband was sitting a few seats down beside a preacher who had found him drunk and had just brought him to church.

To this day, this was and is so amazingly spiritual to me and I always thought the man waving at me was my guardian angel. For the life of me though, I can't remember how he looked.

ST. PRISCILLA

Aquila was a Jewish tentmaker. He and his wife Prisca or Priscilla were forced to leave Rome when Emperor Claudius forbade Jews to live there. They went to Corinth, where St. Paul lived with them during his stay there and may have converted them to Christianity. They accompanied Paul to Ephesus and remained there; Paul stayed with them on his third missionary journey. They then returned to Rome, where their house was also used as a church and then went back to Ephesus. They suffered martyrdom in Asia Minor, according to the Roman Martyrology but a tradition has them martyred in Rome. Their feast day is July 8th.

The Bathtub Test

It doesn't hurt to take a hard look at yourself from time to time, and this should help get you started.

During a visit to the mental asylum, a visitor asked the Director what the criterion was which defined whether or not a patient should be institutionalized.

"Well," said the Director, "we fill up a bathtub, then we offer a teaspoon, a teacup and a bucket to the patient and ask him or her to empty the bathtub."

"Oh, I understand," said the visitor. "A normal person would use the bucket because it's bigger than the spoon or the teacup."

"No." said the Director, "A normal person would pull the plug. Do you want a bed near the window?"

I will spread prosperity over her like a river.
—Isaiah 66:12
